ACTING GOVERNOR SAYS NO SESSION

In Absence of Gov McCreary, E. McDermott Gives Out Statement Opposing Plan To Convene Legislature in Extra Session and Giving Views of State Conditions.

Says Time is Not Now Opportune.

Frankfort, Ky., March 7.—Political complications now would greatly impair the progress and usefulness of a special session of the Legislature, is the opinion of Acting Governor E. J. McDermott. When asked what he thought of a special session the Acting Governor said that he was of the opinion that the time was not opportune, and that the cost of a session would be too heavy, considering the financial of the State.

In an interview requested of him today regarding an extra session of the Legislature and the financial condition of the State, the Acting Governor took occasion to defend the last General Assembly, which he says is being criticized now for political reasons. He said:

"I tried to help Governor McCreary in his effort to keep the apportionments within reasonable bounds, even when some of the prominent people and newspapers of the State were clamoring for apportionments two or three times as large as those finally passed. Many of those who wanted higher apportionments are now silent when the Legislature is being criticized because it did appropriate money for various purposes, then, and still, very popular and loudly advocated.

"That is what makes the position of a member of the Legislature so disagreeable to many good men and why they shrink the service. They are urged and persuaded to be progressive and to give public money liberally for popular measures, and, when their work is later criticized, the men who urged the gift are silent. When the Legislature adjourned last year everybody agreed that the great majority of the members had been industrious, careful, progressive and honest. Now, for political reasons, their work is criticized."

"There is certainly need of economy in State affairs. Some of our public institutions are costing too much, and they have too little restraint. With a tax rate of 50 cts, which has not been increased for many years, with the assessment of the State's property not higher than formerly, in spite of the universal rise of prices and with increased appropriations and for the farming interests and other interests that the people have been favoring, it is plain that there must be an improvement in the method and rate of assessment of all our property and in the computation of the needs of the State each year in advance and in the methods of starting and exhibiting for the Legislators and the people the resources and expenditures of each year.

"The Governor and the State officers and some of the ablest, most unselfish men in the Commonwealth must carefully work out a better budget system for the future. The present system of assessment is wholly inefficient as the present returns clearly show. The fact that the total assessment of the State's property has lately fallen, while our population has increased and prices have rapidly risen, makes the absurdity of the present system clear.

"It seems to me that this is not an opportune time for an extra session. It is either too late or too soon. The cost of the session at this time would be heavy. The Legislature usually costs from $1,000 to $1,300 a day, and the mileage is heavy. We should not lightly spend that money at present.

"A definite, sound financial system must be worked out carefully before the Legislature is called to act.

"There have been only four special sessions of the Legislature in forty years. They are sometimes needed, but only for grave reasons. Political complications now would greatly impair the progress and usefulness of a special session. If subsequent events should make such a session seem necessary at later date, I should frankly change my opinion. I am now studying our financial affairs to be able to form a safer opinion, but it is not an easy problem, nor is it to be quickly settled."

State Prepared to Fight White Plague

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10.—The Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission is organized, ready for work, said Secretary Ray Frenc today.

"There is plenty of work to be done. Kentucky stands either first or second among the States in its death rate from tuberculosis. One-seventh of the citizens die of this disease, (13,082 in 1908-09). The average for the United States is about one death in eleven.

"Tuberculosis is no longer a problem for the doctors. The profession knows all the facts essential for combatting the disease as it affects individuals. It is now a problem of communities and a problem of prevention. Two things are now necessary in fighting the disease. One is that every person shall know the simple facts about the cause, cure and prevention of consumption. The other is the supply by communities of the necessary hospitals, nurses and medical attention for sufferers, in order not only to cure the individual, but also to prevent the spread of infection through ignorance or preverness.

The commission will undertake a vigorous campaign through exhibit, lectures and otherwise. Definite information regarding local problems is asked and all possible assistance will be given.

The Commissioner are: Governor James B. McCreary, President; Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, Vice-President; Miss Tevis Camden, Dr. U. V. Williams, Dr. Everett Morris, Dr. H. S. Keller, Dr. R. T. Yoe, Bernard Flexner.

FEDERAL BUILDING SITES.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Office of the Secretary.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 11, 1913
Proposals are hereby solicited, to be opened in the Office of the Supervising Architect, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., at 10 o'clock A. M. on April 2nd, 1913, for the sale or donation to the United States of a corner lot, centrally and conveniently located and suitable for a Federal building site at Barbourville, Kentucky. The site must be approximately 16,000 square feet in area, and if the lot offered is rectangular, its minimum dimension must be not less than 115 feet.

Upon application the Postmaster will supply prospective bidders with a circular giving particulars as to requirements and instruction for preparation of bids and data to accompany same.

Secretary.

IGNORE THE WEBB LAW

Mr. Sommers Thus Sets Forth the Adams Express Co.'s Position.

Still Shipping Liquor.—South Carolina and The Dry Counties of North Carolina Only Excepted.

ADVISED BY ATTORNEYS.

"We intend to pay no attention whatever to the Webb law," said Mr. A. C. Sommers, local agent of the Adams and Southern Express Companies, "as far as the Adams Express Company is concerned. We shall continue taking consignment of liquor and shipping them to their destination, unless the destination be South Carolina or one of the dry counties of North Carolina.

"We make this exception because of a telegram received from the Southern Express Company, which says that it will not carry shipments of liquor to these two places.

"The local dispensary laws in South Carolina have caused some difficulties which were insurmountable in that field."

"We are taking this stand on advice of the general counsel of the Adams Express Company, Mr. Law, Maxwell, of Cincinnati. Mr. Maxwell is also the counsel for the Mail Order Liquor Association."

Must Deliver Booze to Consignee

Chief Justice Gary of the South Carolina Supreme Court, has signed an order requiring the Southern Express Company to deliver a package said to contain liquor to D. F. Collicutt, the consignee, in Columbia, S. C. It is possible that the case may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States to test the validity of the Webb law.

Under the law the express company claimed it could not deliver in South Carolina and it held up a shipment to Collicutt. Chief Justice Gary's order may be applied to the other express offices in this State, especially in "dry" counties, which have refused to deliver liquor.

SENATOR JAMES HAS PATRONAGE

Is Certain to Get Desirable Committee Assignments and State Appointments May Also be Left to His Recommendation.

Washington, Mar. 10.—Ollie M. James, Kentucky's new Senator, is certain to get first-class committee assignments under the new dispensation, which has brought progressive Democrats to the fore in the Senate. It is safe to say that he will go on either the Finance Committee or the Judiciary Committee.

The Finance Committee has jurisdiction of tariff legislation and it is particularly fitting that Senator James should belong to it, his friends say, because of his former service on the Ways and Means Committee, which is the tariff framing committee of the House. He probably will know his fate as to committee assignments within a few days.

This being true the chance of Dr. E. B. Dishman, of this city, landing the collectorship seems to be increased, for Dr. Dishman stands well with Senator James and is making his fight altogether through "Big Ollie."

PENSION WARRANTS

State Law Department Doubts Constitutionality of the Act and the Matter Will Be Put Up To the Courts

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10.—State Auditor Bosworth was advised in an opinion by Assistant Attorney General Charles H. Morris that there is sufficient doubt about the constitutionality of the Confederate pension act to justify the Auditor in refusing to issue warrants for pensions until the courts directed it to be done.

Some days ago the Auditor wrote the Attorney General stating that his bondsmen had raised a question as to the validity of the act, and that while he was in heart sympathy with the purposes of the act, he wanted a ruling on its validity before issuing any warrants under it. In response to this the opinion today given the Auditor, which is fourteen pages long, points out in detail the parts of the act which might prove vulnerable should the act be attacked on the grounds of constitutionality.

It says that it may reasonably come under the head of "class legislation," as it divides the indigent, disabled and poor citizens of the Commonwealth into two sets, one of which may receive attention and the other may not.

Section 3 of the Bill of Rights is referred to, which says:

"No grant of the exclusive, separate public emoluments or privileges shall be made to any man or set of men except in consideration of public services," and says the pension act comes very close to being a grant of public emolument to a set of men and is legislation in favor of a class.

The opinion says the Constitutions of some Southern States that grant pensions to Confederate soldiers make provision for such pensions, and the Constitutions in the other States granting such pensions do not contain the restrictions that are in the Kentucky Constitution. A number of cases bearing on the points raised are cited. The opinion concludes as follows:

"For our part, we would be glad indeed, if the few remaining veterans, these old heroes of the Confederate army, could draw the small stipended the Commonwealth has allowed them without any question but we feel safe in saying that there is not one among the entire number, patriotic as he is and as he must be who would for one moment think of taking from the Commonwealth one penny, even though it stood between him and starvation, unless that penny came to him legally.

"And in strict conformity to the organic law of the State and to this end, they ought to and no doubt will welcome a judicial determination of the validity of the act by the court of last resort, and if there should be expressed the least doubt as to the constitutionality it should be tested, and we do say there is sufficient doubt to justify you in refusing to issue warrants until the courts direct that you should."

Nothing definite is known yet as to when a test case will be filed, but some one or more of the prospective pensioners probably will file the suit within the next few days.

Information was received at the Auditor's office to the effect that General Bennett H. Young of Louisville, who will represent one or more pensioners, will, in the next few days, file a suit in the State fiscal court at Frankfort to test the

SECRET LOCK.

If you have several small drawers in a bookcase or desk you can lock one of them in a manner most difficult to discover by boring a hole through the piece between two of the drawers and into the drawer. Fit a peg into this just tight enough not to slip down, and the drawer cannot be opened until the one above it is pulled entirely out to give access to the peg.

ROADS.

Anent the proposed highway extending from Crab Orchard to Cumberland Gap over the Old Boone Trail, the Lexington Herald had the following to say in an editorial of Sunday, March 9th:

Recently the Mount Vernon Commercial Club started a movement looking toward the rebuilding of the old Wilderness Road from Cumberland Gap over the Boone trail, to Crab Orchard, a distance of some hundred miles, to connect with the macadam roads of Central Kentucky. No road projected in Kentucky would be more traveled,
nor bring greater benefits to a rich,
but as yet largely undeveloped section, than this road. Every county in Central Kentucky, as well as every county through which the road would pass, could well afford to contribute generously to make the project a success. We earnestly hope the Mount Vernon Commercial Club will succeed in getting the aid of the Government, at the State and of the various counties to rebuild this road, that would not only open up a rich section, but would have historic associations unsurpassed by any highway in the South
or Southwest.

There is published in other columns of this issue, an editorial from the Mount Vernon Signal, telling something of the effort to rebuild the Wilderness Road, which it is proposed to call the "Boone Road".
We, of the Blue Grass, who have for years been blessed with good roads, have not shown, as yet, the interest we should in the construction of good roads in other parts of the State. The Herald has, for years advocated State aid in the construction of good roads in every county of the State. One of the chief reasons we advocate a constitutional convention for the adoption of a constitution in place of the hybrid product mis-called a constitution, is that we want a change
made that will authorize the State to aid in building good roads throughout every portion of the State. Every section of the State should help to bring about a successful fruition of such projects as the construction of the Boone Road
from Crab Orchard to Cumberland Gap, and the Lincoln Highway from Louisville to Hodgenville.

The Mt. Vernon Commercial Club aided by their local paper has been agitating the securing of Government Aid in the construction of a macadamized pike over their route and have sent out circular letters to persons in the counties of Rockcastle, Laurel, Knox and Bell asking that they take up the matter with their representatives in Congress and help to secure this federal aid. They are making an aggressive fight toward this end and if every citizen in these four counties through which this road would extend would show the same determination that this Club is putting forth the proposition would be far from an inauspicious idea and no doubt results
would be obtained.

DEVICE FOR PICKING FRUIT

A very convenient device for picking fruit has been designed by a man living in the fruit regions of California. It consists of a thimble, which may be tied to the thumb and which terminates in a blade with a keen edge. The fruit is seized by the hand and the stem is severed by means of the thumb knife. With such a device

as this the picking of fruit is materially expedited and there is no danger of tearing the branches or marring
the fruit when it is plucked.—Sci-

The Apple Aphid.

Spraying to kill the apple aphid is a difficult job. The insects work on the under side of the leaves, and this causes them to curl up, and it is very difficult to reach all of them with spray material. The insects multiply rapidly, and the few that are not reached with poison soon bring on another crop.

Worthless Trees.

Neglected fruit trees are not worth
the ground they occupy, and besides they are an eyesore to everybody, and when infested with worms and insects
a constant menace to the neighborhood. There ought to be a law prohibiting any man from allowing trees
of this kind to remain on the farm.

Pruning Fruit Trees.

Prune the tops from the tall, slender fruit trees. They form a high mark for the wind to blow down, are less vigorous than low-down trees, will not bear up as much fruit and make fruit picking a harder job.

Bad Orchard Site.

It is a mistake to cultivate an orchard on a hillside. Nothing but the soil will hold the soil there.

ly, then remove cork from bottom of ning. When the water in the trough

RAT-PROOF CHICKEN ROOST

Ample Protection Afforded Against Predatory Animals by Device

The accompanying illustration shows a convenient chicken roost which is proof against rats, minks and weasels. This roost is made of two pieces of plank four feet long, four inches broad and one inch thick; five pieces of plank three feet long, two inches broad and one inch thick; four pieces of wire about eight feet long.

As shown in the illustration, the three-foot pieces are nailed crosswise to the four-foot pieces and a wire attached to all four corners. It is then suspended from the roof in the chicken house with the front end of the roost
about sixteen inches from the floor while the back should be twenty-seven inches.

The caponizing season is at an end.

Start the trap nests if you are keeping a record of your winter layers.
The battle with vermin is a never-ending one, because the lice never quit.

The early pullets are beginning to lay, but, as a general thing, eggs are very scarce.

The best remedy for sick fowls is the ax, but with proper precaution
they won't get sick.

Two or three applications of kerosene to scaly legs makes as sure a remedy as can be found.

There are those who begin with scrubs, intending to keep purebreds
later on, but they seldom do.

It is possible for the hens to lay when shedding their feathers, but not when growing the new crop.

Chaff about straw stacks makes good scratching litter and the sooner
it is hauled up the better it will be.

If the poultry-house is overcrowded, kill off some of the older birds. Keep stocked up with young thrifty layers.

Those old hens may be valuable as
"keep sakes" but the young and vigorous ones will produce the most eggs.

Do give the later summer-hatched chicks a chance to eat their meals
without being run over by older birds.

Excited men and women make excited birds, and that has a bad effect on the egg-producing mechanism of the birds.

Sell all the old hens that you do not intend to winter. At this season they command a reasonably good price in market.

Get in your winter supplies and utensils—this includes the incubators
and brooders, and what new stock
you must purchase.

You may think you know a good deal about how to raise poultry, but the deeper you go into it the more surprises you will find.

Government Selling Idaho Timber.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 1, '13—
The Government is selling 267,000-000 board feet of timber in the Priest River Valley of the Kaniku
National Forest, Idaho. This sale diggers from most of those made by the Government in handling its National Forest timber business.
Not merely the ripe timber will be sold to make room for a new crop,
but on part of the area the purchasers will be expected to take everything in sight, after the time-honored fashion of most lumbering that is done on private lands. In short, the forest will be destroyed.

In the Kaniku sale part of the area will be clear-cut because the land is more valuable for agriculture than for forests. Stump land in the same neighborhood sells for
as high as $40 to $50 an acre;
sometimes even more. While the present stand of timber on the best land within the Forest is, according to the Forest Service, in general worth more than the land apart
from the timber, the annual returns obtainable from farm crops make agriculture the best form of use for this land.

To open a homestead entry land
with from $5,000 to $7,000 worth of timber on each homestead unit,
as is the case on many homestead areas on the Kaniku, tends to put a premium on its entry by timber speculators. From the speculators they go to lumber companies, and the lumber companies hold back agricultural development either by keeping the timber intact for a long period, or by cutting the land clean and then holding it at a price
which the prospective home-builder looking for cheap land to develop can not pay. Therefore the Government does not open to entry heavily timbered agricultural land on National Forests until after the timber has been cut off.

In this instance the Federal Government will receive about $650-
000 for the timber, of which sum $225,000 will go to the benefit of the State or public schools and good roads, and the rest will be covered into the Treasury. All told, the yearly receipts from the National Forests have been about $2,000, of which timber sales have contributed about one half, but the Forest Service reports that the demand for Government timber is now increasing rapidly. Since July 1st, twice as much timber has been sold as was sold in the entire preceding twelve months, and while the timber will be paid for only as it is removed during a term of years the forestry officials expect to see the timber receipts mount up fast each year during the period immediately ahead.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give their annual "Spelling Bee" in the Sunday School room of the Church, Monday evening March 17th at seven o'clock.

Ten cents will be the admission, and refreshments will be served free. Everybody is most cordially invited to be present.

Colored Citizen of Fighting Creek Dead.

Dock Terrell, a young colored man living on Fighting Creek, died in Louisville Tuesday and was brought here for burial Wednesday. He recently studied for the ministry and was the time of his death, finishing his course. He had a large number of relatives on Fighting Creek, all of whom are well thought of and respected citizens.

Laurel County Fair.

The Laurel County Fair Association, has fixed Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, August 26, 27, 28 and 29, 1913—four days as the dates of meeting of the Association. The London Fair has behind it an enviable reputation of putting on one among the best fairs held in the mountains, and its attendance this year will more than likely pass all past records, which have always been good.

Baptismal Service.

Twenty-eight persons were baptised by Rev. A. C. Hutson, of the Baptist Church of this city, last Sunday afternoon. This is only about half the number that joined this church at the recent revival, and there yet remains thirty-two who will receive the ordinance of baptism in the near future. It was estimated that there were almost a thousand people gathered at the riverside to witness this baptismal service.

HARRISON.

Aunt Lila Harrison, one of the oldest and best loved residents of Barbourville, died at the home of William Messamore's last Monday, March 10th, of infirmities of age, being eighty years old at the time of her death. Funeral services were conducted at the First M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. E. R. Overly, and she was buried at the Trace Branch Messamore grave yard.

She leaves a large number of relatives and friends who mourn her loss.

OBITUARY.

Deilla Messamore was born on Richland Creek, in March 1733. The records of her life were destroyed a number of years ago and there is no way of knowing exactly the dates of her birth or marriage.

When quite young she was married to Whitt Harrison, who preceded Aunt Lila into the Great City some 17 years ago. They had no children.

At a very early age Aunt Lila joined the Trace Branch Methodist Church, and for a long number of years had lived a devoted, happy, useful Christian life.

Civic League Entertainment

The Civic League Entertainment given some weeks ago will be repeated Saturday night at Union College. The ladies of the League are giving this splendid entertainment again in response to a general request from the public and it is expected there will be a big crowd out to see it. The proceeds will be used in the purchase and erection of a beautiful fountain for the Public Square.

The price of admission has been reduced to 10 and 15 cents.

To Consumptives

Rev. Edward A. Wilson was cured by simple means of a severe throat and lung affection which developed into consumption. If you will write to Mr. Chas. A. Albott, 60 Ann St., New York City, he will send you (FREE OF CHARGE) Mr. Wilson's full description of his cure. It will cost you nothing and may prove a blessing.

Something of a Curiosity.
Ruthie accompanied her mamma to prayer service, and during the service the hymn, "Cross and Crown," the first line of which reads, "The consecrated cross I'll bear," etc., was sung with much fervor by the congregation, when Ruthie considerably upset her mother's gravity by whispering excitedly: "Mamma, what does a cross-eyed bear look like?"

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Fine Home For Sale

I have a fine home for sale near Barbourville. This home consists of about twenty-five acres of land on which is an ideal two story, eight room building which has wide hallways and concrete sidewalks leading from the roadway to the house. Has a good barn, good well and all the necessary outbuildings, and has a good twelve year old orchard which is now bearing. These buildings are practically new, having been built only about six years and is in good state of repairs. This home is just outside the corporation limits of the city of Barbourville on the State road leading to Pineville about one half mile from the depot and about three hundred yards from the Fair Grounds. Barbourville has two colleges and a graded school and churches of different denominations and this is an ideal place of property. This is a good chance for any one wanting to run a truck garden, dairy and poultry business, as well as a nice farm and home. Handy to market. This farm will positively be sold to the highest bidder without any side bidding by the owner. Terms to suit purchaser.

This home will be sold on Saturday, March 29th, at 1 o'clock p. m., at public auction.

Also will sell at that time one fine harness mare, wagon, buggy harness and farming implements. For further information call on or write.

The New Remedy For

Tuberculosis & Bronchitis

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 6, 1913.

To whom It may Concern:
I was pronounced to be in the last stage of tuberculosis when Dr. W. F. Black first called on me, several months ago I was having hemorrhages lasting several hours each time, and was sinking fast. I had been given up by other physicians, when Dr. Black began his treatment. After two or three treatments he succeeded in stopping the hemorrhages. I had a very bad cough and got little or no rest. My cough also began to get better and finally left me entirely. My family as well as myself, give Dr. Black credit for saving my life.

During the past few days I have had Dr. C. M. Rudolph and Dr. Joe G. Moore, prominent physicians of Birmingham, Ala. make a thorough examination, and they state that I have now no lung trouble.

I would consider it a pleasure to answer any communication regarding myself, especially if I can be the means of helping others by telling them what Dr. Black's Medicine has done for me.

My address is 224 Oakland Ave., Birmingham, Ala., and I can be seen there at any time, and I would be glad to give anyone a personal interview. (Signed) Mrs. R. L. NEESE

Union College Chapel Thursday Night, March 27th. BEST OF SINGERS AND ENTERTAINERS

Beulah Buck Quartet Finest Soloists on Lyceum Platform.

Four beautiful women would attract attention on any platform anywhere. When these beautiful women are four of the best singers and entertainers one has the explanation for the unbounded success with which this gifted quartet has met. No finer or better women's quartet has appeared in Lyceum courses during the last 20 years. Each is a fine soloist, about equally dividing honors, their ensemble singing is perfect, and the readings by Mrs. Beulah Buck, the manager and organizer of the quartet, are intensely interesting. It is seldom she fails to get three and four encores at each appearance.

Perhaps the most attractive feature of their program, because it combines all the other features into one number, is the original sketch, "The Old Melodeon," which is remembered in every city where given. For the many return engagements, an entirely new sketch, quite as beautiful and popular as last season's, will be given. In these sketches the young ladies appear in beautiful gowns of the Colonial period, discuss the times they used to have, the old melodeon and what songs were sung about it, and they sing many of the old familiar songs that never grow old and that will live forever. The dialogue is very entertaining, never trivial or tiresome, and frequently very humorous, while the songs are beautifully rendered and usually bring tears to the eyes of their hearers. The entire program is well balanced and will please the musically educated, as well as those who have no musical education, but who love good music well rendered. The personnel of this quartet is notable: Mrs. Beulah Buck, soprano; Miss Harriet B. Jones, contralto; Miss Teresa Von Neil, contralto; and Miss Marjorie Paddock, soprano.

BEULAH BUCK QUARTET.
Beginning at the top the photos are Mrs. Beulah Buck, Miss Teresa Von Neil, Miss Marjorie Paddock and Miss Harriet B. Jones.

HOW TO FUMIGATE HEN HOUSE

Building Should Be Closed Tightly and All Fowls Excluded—Be Careful of Poison Used.

Fumigation is a means of reaching nooks and insect life in the air of the room and in the cracks and crevices of the wood work, says the Cultivator. The house or room should be tightly closed and all fowls excluded during fumigation. A simple method is to burn the sulphur candles now sold at stores dealing in poultry supplies. The fumes of brimstone may also be produced by burning in a metallic basin (such as an old iron kettle) a number of rags previously soaked in melted sulphur. Sulphur may be mixed with a little alcohol or kerosene oil and burned, or it may be sprinkled upon live coals placed in a smoking dish. The house or room should be kept closed for several hours and then opened as thoroughly as possible to allow the wind to drive out any remaining trace of poisonous gas. In fumigating by burning substances be careful not to set fire to the building. Remember also that in most cases the substances which are used are poisonous to human life and to fowls.

DIVINE JUSTICE IN THE DELUGE

Truly Understood, the Flood
Was an Act of Mercy.

FREED MAN FROM SLAVERY.

Pastor Russell's Interpretations Unlock Mysteries of the Bible—Dark Statements Made Luminous—Lucifer Because of His Rebellion Became Satan. How His Evil Example Was Permitted to Test the Loyalty of All the Holy Angels—Penalty of Sin Imposed by Divine Justice is Death.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Dayton, Ohio, February 9.—Great crowds heard Pastor Russell today at Memorial Hall. He spoke twice. We report his discourse on the Deluge from the text, "The flood came, and took them all away." (Matthew 24:39.) Speaking without notes, he said:

I continue today my subject of a week ago at Brooklyn. I am confident that many of you keep in touch with my weekly discourses through the newspapers. Last Sunday we considered the physical causes which led up to the Deluge, and found them every way most reasonable and in full harmony with history and geology. Today we consider the Deluge from a different standpoint. We will attempt to show from the Bible why God permitted the Deluge at all, and that He was fully justified in the arrangement which blotted out the human family, except eight persons—righteous Noah and his family.—2 Peter 2:4-10.

To begin with, we should remember that God's Covenant with Adam, granting him everlasting life, was based upon the fact that he was perfect (an image of his Creator), and on condition that he would maintain this image and likeness by continued obedience to his Maker. When Satan, the serpent, tempted him to eat the forbidden fruit, he was thereby a temptation.

Mother Eve saw that so far from the serpent's being poisoned by that fruit, it was the wisest of animals. She reasoned that humanity was so far superior to the brute that the increased wisdom would make her husband and herself like gods. She thirsted for knowledge and power. Only the Divine command seemed to stand between her and the highest ideals. She partook of the fruit and recommended it to Adam—who was not so deceived, but who knew that death would surely follow disobedience. Nevertheless he disobeyed, thinking that he would rather perish with his wife than spend eternity without her.

The disobedience led to expulsion from Eden and the beginning of the gradual execution of the sentence, "Dying, thou shalt die." Adam died within the thousand-year Day in which he ate "of the tree"—nine hundred thirty years old. His race inherited his dying conditions and tendencies. Thus all humanity are under the Divine curse, or sentence of death, and have been going down to the tomb, Hades, for six thousand years. Whatever, therefore, may cut short human life is no injustice to humanity, because whatever life is enjoyed is just so much more than it has title to. Hence the Deluge was merely a quick means of executing against the race the death sentence already expressed sixteen centuries before.

The Deluge a Deliverance.

When the Bible account of the cause of the Deluge is properly comprehended, it is seen that it was indeed a blessing in disguise. The human family had gotten into slavery, and would shortly have been wiped out by a new race which most peculiarly had intruded upon humanity. The Bible tells us that this new race consisted exclusively of males, propagated through the human female. We read: "The same were mighty men... men of renown"—Genesis 6:4.

The fallen race of Adam was unable to cope with the superior mental and physical strength of the intruders. Robbed of their wives and daughters, and compelled to do the drudgery of their new masters, their lives were a burden. Not only so, but the new race was vicious, brutal, violent, as well as immoral. The Bible account declares, "The earth was filled with violence." The general moral corruption went so far that we read, "Every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart was only evil continually." What a terrible arraignment! What a mercy in the sight of all intelligent beings that such a terribly immoral, strife-filled, and enslaved condition should be brought completely to an end! This description is found graphically recorded in Genesis 6:1-11, said Pastor Russell.

Whence the Race of Giants?

In the past we have not studied the Bible with sufficient care, and therefore have not appreciated properly its wonderful, harmonious story. The origin of the invading race of giants is clearly told, said Pastor Russell. Satan, a glorious angelic being of a high order, named Lucifer, the Morning Star, defected to sin, because of ambition. He had said in his heart long before, "I will be as the Most High"—an independent sovereign. (Isaiah 14:12-14.) Satan thought that he saw his opportunity to establish a separate empire in the earth. He thought that if he could become master of the first pair, all of their children would be his subjects. Knowing of his own undying nature, and that man was created for everlasting existence, he counted not on death as the Divine penalty for sin.

When Satan perceived his human subjects growing gradually weaker under the curse, a new plan was formulated. To the angels who were given permission to help and to instruct humanity, a temptation was presented. They possessed the power of materialization, and could appear as human, to help and instruct humanity. The Satanic suggestion was that they could help humanity best by begetting a new race, using the human females as mothers for that race, to which they would impart their own virility. Although this was recognized as being contrary to Divine Law, it was perceived that Satan had not been punished for his rebellion. The inference was that God was unable to punish Satan for this rebellion. Thus by refraining from punishing Satan, God left open the door by which all the holy angels were exposed to temptations to disobedience and disloyalty.

Thus we may know that all the angels of Heaven in harmony with God are loyal to the core, because they withstood temptation—permitted for the very purpose of their testing. That this testing continued for centuries we know from the context, because the children of the illicit union were not babes, but men—giants—and renowned at a time when manhood was rarely reached earlier than one century. The simple record of Genesis is, "The sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose."... When the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children unto them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.—Genesis 6:4.

It was these bestial giants who filled the earth with violence, oppressing and enslaving Adam's posterity. As for them, they never had a right to existence, since they were born contrary to the Divine will, or Law. Nor can we suppose that in any sense of the word they would be included in the redemptive work of Jesus, who died only for Adam and his posterity. "As all in Adam die, even so all in Christ shall be made alive, every man in his own order"—the Church in the First Resurrection.—1 Corinthians 15:22.

Hope for the Antediluvians.

There is the same hope for the antediluvians as for all the remainder of the human family—the hope of the resurrection of the dead. This means not merely a hope of being awakened from the sleep of death, but a resurrection hope, a hope of Restitution, a hope of return, if they will, to the full measure of human perfection, the image of God in the flesh. This hope as we have seen on previous occasions, rests first of all on God's gracious promise that all the families of the earth shall be blessed in Abraham's Seed. Secondly, it rests in the Bible assurance that Jesus is the Head, and the Church the members of that Spiritual Seed of Abraham, which soon, as the Elect of God, will be completed and glorified.

In the Messianic Kingdom this great "Seed" will accomplish the blessings foreordained. St. Paul emphasized this, saying, "If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and heirs according to the promise" made to Abraham. "In thy Seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."—Genesis 22:18; Galatians 3:29, 16.

The Fallen Angels Punished.

On next Lord's day we will inquire of God's wonderful Book, the Bible, just what penalty Divine Justice has imposed upon Satan and his associated angelic rebels. I will reach all who desire through the hundreds of newspapers which publish my sermons weekly. If you are not in touch with any of these, drop me a postcard, to Washington Temple or Brooklyn Tabernacle. I remind you now, however, that the Bible assures us that Noah and his family were of pure Adamic stock, in the words, "Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations."

Divine Patience Manifested.

As we review the situation, we are amazed at the exhibition given us of Divine patience. We are reminded of St. Peter's words that God is not willing that any should perish. How easily He could have blotted out of existence our first parents and have created another pair! How easily He could have hindered Satan from presenting the temptation! How easily He could have warned the angels against a course of disobedience, and, if necessary, have shown them His Power at any time!

These incidents illustrate to us a general principle of Divine Character and dealings. God wishes not to have the heavens and the earth populated with evil beings. Creating angels and men in His own image and likeness, on different planes, He desires them to maintain their own station, and in loving loyalty to learn to trust His Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power. Moreover, He does not wish to have any children or servants in all His domain obedient merely because of fear, merely because of ignorance. Jesus' words give us the key to the Heavenly Father's Character in this respect. He says, The Father seeketh such to worship Him as worship Him in spirit and in truth.—John 4:23.

God had indeed a glorious Dominion before sin entered the world. And He could, of course, have hindered any spread of the disloyal ambition of Satan by destroying him, or He could have coerced him into obedience as a slave. But such He desires not. God most evidently has the very highest ideals in respect to His Government and all of His subjects. All His work is perfect, and He will not allow it to get away from the perfection in which He created His intelligent creatures. Every variation from the perfection, therefore, must be the result of disobedience; and the unalterable Law is that the disobedient shall perish.

Man's Experiences a Lesson.

We may say, then, that God not only foreknew that the conditions under which man was created would result in temptation, in sin; but without causing the temptation, and without giving any excuse for the disloyalty, He determined to permit it. Some suppose that the permission is to be everlasting, but the Scriptures assure us to the contrary. The reign of sin and death He purposed to permit for six thousand years. Then by bringing in the Messianic Kingdom, He purposes to abolish sin and death, lifting to human perfection the willing and obedient and destroying in the Second Death all the unwilling and disobedient.

The sending of His Son was a part of God's Plan. He put the death penalty upon humanity, knowing at the time that it would require the death of an obedient Sacrifice for human redemption, and purposing in advance that He would provide such a Redeemer as would willingly, gladly, become man's surety, man's Ransom-price. Thus the permission of evil has resulted in the manifestation of God's Love in a manner that otherwise would hardly have been revealed. The infliction of the death sentence for so long has, likewise, demonstrated the persistence of Divine Justice and its penalty.

The recovery of the dead by a resurrection will demonstrate, as nothing else could, the Power of God. And when the entire Plan of God shall have been worked out, and shall have been made known to angels and men, as a whole it will demonstrate the Wisdom of God as it never could have been known, had He not adopted the plan He did of temporarily permitting a reign of sin and death.

"Many Sons to Glory."

Another thing made possible by the permission of sin has been the special call of an Elect Church during this Gospel Age. The Bible declares that the Elect Church are begotten of the Spirit throughout this Age, and must be born of the Spirit in the Resurrection. "Flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." The need of a Redeemer opened the way for the Logos to leave the Heavenly nature and become a man. This opened the way for Jesus to demonstrate His love and loyalty by obedience unto death, "even unto the death of the cross." (Philippians 2:8.) And this great sacrifice and the obedience constituted not only the Ransom-price for Adam and his race, but also the basis on which the Heavenly Father highly exalted His Son far above angels, principalities and powers, to His own right hand—to the Divine nature.

Similarly the exaltation of the Church to be the Bride of Christ, His joint-heir in the Kingdom, and partaker with Him of the Divine Nature, was made possible by the permission of sin. The Heavenly Father could justly permit members of the fallen race, of the same disposition as Jesus, and justified and sanctified through Him, to sacrificially lay down their lives as members of the Body of Christ, and by thus suffering with Him to be accounted worthy also of reigning with Him in glory, honor and immortality in His Kingdom.

"Hallelujah! What a Savior!"

"What a God. Infinite in Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power"

Is it any wonder, in view of this work that God has outlined for His Son and the Church, that He should consider it necessary to give us lessons and tests in faith, in loyalty, in obedience? Is it any wonder in view of the work which He has for us to do for mankind, that the Redeemer Himself was given experiences in suffering, that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in the things of God in relation to humanity?

The better we understand the Bible, the more clearly we see that the redemption which God has provided through Jesus' sacrifice is to be worldwide in its effect. The race was not condemned individually, but as a whole in one man, Father Adam, on account of sin. Similarly, the race has been redeemed as a whole by the "Man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a Ransom for all."—1 Timothy 2:5, 6.

The fact that God did not deal with any of the human family except the Hebrews for four thousand years does not mean that He loved the Hebrews only, nor that the Hebrews only will ultimately receive the Divine blessing and a share in the redemptive work. It means that during that time God dealt with the Hebrews in a special way to select from amongst them some especially loyal characters to be sharers in His future work, when He would deal with the world in general.

The fact that all this work—of selecting one class of servants from Hebrews, and another class from all mankind during the Gospel Age—has required a long time—six thousand years—is no argument against God's intention to bless all Adam's children ultimately. The fact that a long time has been consumed in getting ready the instruments of Divine Mercy shows, on the contrary, the greatness and the thoroughness of the Divine Plan in respect to the race as a whole.

Let us avail ourselves of our glorious opportunities for Bible study and for growth in knowledge, grace and love. Let us walk worthy of the light, and rejoice in Him who bought us with His own precious blood—Christ Jesus.

REV. CHAS. SAGER SAYS

August 11, 1906.

Mr. C. A. ABBOTT,

60 Ann St., New York City.

Dear Sir: I have known for over 40 years of the effects of Wilson's Remedy (Wilson's Preparation of Hypophosphites and Biotin) in cases of pulmonary troubles. At this point I will say to you what you have not before known of, that 40 years since, while I was a resident of N. Y. City, I was severely ill with lung trouble. Physicians said I was a consumptive and my family physician told me that he thought I could not recover. My attention was directed to the Wilson Remedy, which I used with splendid effect. I have been on my feet and at work ever since my cure.

Yours truly,

REV. CHAS. SAGER,

Pastor M. E. Church, Hunter, (Greene Co.) N. Y.

On Dec. 1, 1901, Mr. Sager wrote Mr. Abbott:

"My health is very good."

If you will write Mr. Abbott he will gladly furnish you any further information you desire.

An Easy Way.

If you have time and words to waste, waste them by asking one woman to give another the benefit of the doubt.
